Pastor's Page

Hi Gang,

Season's Greeting! That seems appropriate as we are between Christmas and the New Year! It is the Sunday afternoon after Christmas, the day when the sun struck out its head for thirty seconds and returned again behind the clouds. It seemed a good time to bring order out of the chaos of my desk.

The longer we are together, the more you regale me with loads of Christmas cards and greetings of good wishes, prayers, wampum and gift cards aplenty. I used to pride myself on my organizational acumen (DON'T BELIEVE ANYTHING MY SECRETARIES SAY) but I seem to be slipping just a tad.

Anyway, I started on my thank-you notes per e mail; many of you I will try to thank personally; some few I have already thanked while badgering you before or after our weekend Masses.

By the way, WERE NOT OUR CHRISTMAS MASSES TERRIFIC!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
Rodney, Charles and Angie carried the day with the Choir(s). This year the Baltimore Brass sounded especially thrilling and Ms. Julia Martin on the harp was particularly ethereal and powerful this year. Judy, Macey and Sr. Sally did most of the decorating for the season in a manner that is always festive and in supremely good taste. Nothing but the best for our OLC-ers! No kidding!

On a practical level, note that Easter will be here before you know. Easter is placed always on the Sunday after the first full moon after the Vernal Equinox. Personally I would prefer it on the second Sunday in April but. . .

Plans are already afoot to ameliorate the comfort level of the 3:30 pm Mass on Christmas eve next year as it is Bedlam. You might want to "google" "Bedlam"; it has an interesting origin!

If you have any ideas you want to bring to our attention, please bring them to the Pastoral Council at our January 27th meeting.

“Stay Where You Are,
Find Your Own Calcutta.”

“You can find Calcutta all over the world, if you have eyes to see. Everywhere, whenever you go, you find people who are unwanted, unloved, uncared for, just rejected by the society---completely forgotten, completely left alone. That is the greatest poverty of the rich countries.

--Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta
soon to be canonized a Saint!

FILM SHOWING: "SISTERS OF SELMA: BEARING WITNESS FOR CHANGE"

As part of the "Keeping the Dream Alive - a celebration of the life of Martin Luther King, Jr." observation, St. Ignatius Catholic Church in Baltimore will present the documentary, "Sisters of Selma: Bearing Witness for Change." After the violence of "Bloody Sunday" in 1965, Catholic sisters from around the country followed their faith to join the voting rights protests in Selma, Alabama. Never before in American history had vowed Catholic women made so public a political statement. Risking personal safety to bring change, the sisters were themselves changed--and they tell us how. Selma's African Americans attest to the importance of Catholic clergy in their lives--and explain why it took another 35 years to become fully enfranchised. In 2003, director Jayasri Hart reunited the nuns, priests and other activists to view themselves and the protests on tape for the first time. Selmians, Catholic and Protestant, offered their views on the nuns' contributions to history. A powerful, affirming new story of faith and justice arises from events we thought we knew. Serving as facilitator for the film and the following discussion will be Sister Gwynette Proctor, SND. Sister Gwynette is the Director of the Office of African-American Catholic Ministries for the Archdiocese of Baltimore. The showing of this documentary is sponsored by the St. Ignatius Catholic Community Racial Justice Forum. There is no charge for this event. Popcorn, snacks and beverages will be provided. Date and Time: Friday, January 15 - 7 PM Location: St. Ignatius Catholic Community 740 N. Calvert Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21202 Information: 410-727-3848.

There is no charge; however, due to curriculum ordering, reservations are required. To reserve your spot go to <http://st-ignatius.net/cracking-the-codes/>. ### Middle School Youth Ministry

Last Monday, Jan. 4th, we began our Session 3 faith formation meetings. Our theme for the three weeks is “Growing Up Sexually.” Last Monday we focused on the importance of treating others with respect and kindness, regardless of their rate of physical development.

This Monday, Jan. 11th, from 4:30pm to 6:00pm, we will discuss how the feelings they are experiencing are part of growing up sexually, and examine how Jesus expressed his emotions. All 6th, 7th, and 8th grade students are welcome and encouraged to join us!

The Junior High also has their annual Ski Trip to Whitetail on Monday, January 25th. Flyers are available SOON in the box on the Business Office door in the church lobby and will be e-mailed to parents. We are NOT taking a bus this year, but will rely on Archdiocesan Child Protection trained parents to drive and chaperone... and have a great time with us too. Parents who are willing and able to come along with us who are NOT yet trained and cleared at OLC, please do so ASAP at our website www.olchesapeake.org (do not wait until the week before or it will probably be too late).

High School Youth Ministry

Our Sunday evening faith formation meetings will be on break until Sunday, February 14th, when we begin Session 3 entitled “Troubles.” However, our Wednesday evening faith formation meetings run year round (see below), so come join us please! If you have any questions, please contact Tim Janiszewski (410-255-3677).

On Friday, January 22nd, we are heading to Washington, D.C. to take part in the Rally and March for Life. At the Rally before the March, we will join 20,000 other catholic high school students at the Verizon Center for a Rally with great music, talks, and a Mass. This is a most worthy cause and a great experience. Flyers are available SOON in the box on the Business Office door in the church lobby and will be e-mailed to parents.

Friday evening, January 22nd, the high school students will host their annual Game Night for the Winter Relief – come and play cards, board games, watch television, and spend some quality time with our guests. In order for the students to attend this year, one of their parents must attend with them. It’s a great evening; please consider joining us. Flyers are available SOON in the box on the Business Office door in the church lobby and will be e-mailed to parents. RSVP is required in advance (we are limited in the number of students that can participate).

Also on Friday evening, January 22nd, the HSYM is making and serving Dessert for the Winter Relief guests. In order for the students to attend this year, one of their parents must attend with them. But students don’t need to attend if they just want to make a dessert (individually wrapped). Please consider serving.

The Junior High also invites the high school students to join them for their annual Ski Trip to Whitetail on Monday, January 25th. Flyers are available SOON in the box on the Business Office door in the church lobby and will be e-mailed to parents. ### Wednesday Night Group (Note: Our Sunday evening meetings are wonderful with great content; the WNG is more relaxed, and yet deeper discussions.) While we have evenings of deep discussion on matters of faith, current events, and prayer, we also include evenings of community building, such as games, fun field trips, and service. And we’ve got some GREAT EATS! The schedule for the entire Fall (Sept.-Dec) has been e-mailed to parents, and we will post here in the bulletin the upcoming month’s schedule.

So...if you are in 9th-12th grade, come join us please Wednesday evenings from 6:30pm to 8:30pm. Here’s our schedule for the next couple of weeks...
